

WordWise

Review vocabulary terms from Chapter 31 by solving the crossword puzzle.

Clues down

1. Muscular organ in birds where food particles are crushed
2. An animal that relies on interactions with the environment to control body temperature
4. Dorsal part of a turtle shell
5. An animal that can generate its own body heat
7. In birds, inhaled air first enters large air _____ in the body cavity and bones.

Clues across

3. Organ located at the end of the esophagus in birds where food is stored and moistened
6. Ventral part of a turtle shell
8. The single most important characteristic that separates birds from all other living animals
9. Type of egg composed of a protective shell and membranes that surround the developing embryo